

Decanter

Loire Sauvignon Blanc : Panel tasting results

Jim Budd

Decanter Magazine,
Wine Writer &
Photographer
May 12, 2020

Sancerre made up about a third of the samples here, and was the clear star of the tasting, while judges also praised Touraine for wine lovers on a tighter budget.

Jim Budd, Rebecca Gibb MW, and Chris Kissack tasted 90 wines with two outstanding and 31 highly recommended.

Top scoring Loire Sauvignon Blanc wines from the panel tasting

Florian Mollet, Roc de l'Abbaye, Sancerre, Loire, 2017

Firmly composed and energetic with gorgeously rich fruit and smoky characters; vigorously fresh and polished with lots of grip.

Points 93